ETUG - Educational Technology Users Group

Last Call for ETUG Spring Proposals!

The Call for Proposals for the upcoming ETUG Spring Workshop is closing on Monday March 25, 2013.  Our theme this year is "Tell it on the Mountain: Teaching, Engaging, Leading and Learning".  This year you can submit a proposal for a session and/or a poster. Read online.

[T.E.L.L. March] Course (Re)Design

When:  12 Noon (PDT) Tuesday, March 26, 2013
Where:  T.E.L.L. sessions are held in the ETUG Blackboard Collaborate Room
Who: Janine Hirtz, UBC Okanagan
Why: Lunch n' Learn sessions are opportunities to learn together about current topics of interest to educational practitioners. Participants are encouraged to remix ...Read online.

[T.E.L.L. April] Creating a Professional Conference Poster

When: 12 Noon (PDT) Tuesday, April 16, 2013
Where: T.E.L.L. sessions are held in the ETUG Blackboard Collaborate Room
Who:  Linda Apps is an educational consultant that has worked as Lecturer at Simon Fraser University and over a decade in industry as a Learning Performance Specialist in the field of adult learning and development. ...

Read online.

---

Meet Sue Birtwell from Vancouver Community College

Tell us a bit about where you work and the work you do.

I currently provide technical support for VCC's online Family Literacy Program. I have also started a new project, "Techno Grannies", providing computer consulting for seniors. Prior to that ...Read online.

---

Call for Proposals technology-enhanced learning conference

 For those interested in a global dialogue on increasing access, equity and engagement through innovations in technology-enabled learning, the Call for Proposals is open for the "International Perspectives on Technology-enhanced Learning" conference. The deadline for proposals is April 15th.

The conference will be held at UBC between July 11-13, 2013. For more information, visit the conference website.

March 2013

Supported by: BCcampus